Upon the application of the United States of America and the affirmation of Daniel S. Noble, Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, it is found that the defendant was charged with conspiracy to violate the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA"), in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371, in a complaint dated October 17, 2017, and was arrested the same day;

It is further found that the defendant was presented on October 31, 2017, before United States Magistrate Judge Barbara Moses of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, and was ordered released on bail with conditions;

It is further found that Matthew Myers, Esq., counsel for the defendant, and Assistant United States Attorney Daniel S. Noble have engaged in, and are continuing, discussions concerning a possible disposition of this case;

It is further found that the Government has requested a continuance of 30 days to engage in further discussions with counsel about the disposition of this case and that the defendant, through counsel, has consented that such a continuance may be granted for that purpose and has specifically waived his right to be charged in an indictment or information for an additional 30 days; and

It is further found that the granting of such a continuance best serves the ends of justice and outweighs the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

Therefore, it is ORDERED that the request for a continuance pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) is hereby granted, nunc pro tunc, until December 30, 2017, and that a copy of this Order and the affirmation of Assistant United States Attorney Daniel S. Noble be served on this date on counsel for the defendant by the United States Attorney's Office.
